Schengen Visas are valid for the following 27 countries:

Austria, Belgium, Croatia, Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Hungary, Iceland, Italy, Latvia, Liechtenstein, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Malta, The Netherlands, Norway, Poland, Portugal, Slovakia, Slovenia, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland.
A Schengen Visa is not appropriate if you wish to remain in a Schengen member state longer than 90 days on a period of 180 days or take up employment or establish a business or practice a profession.

Where to apply for a Schengen visa:

If you are not a resident of Oman, you should apply to the Embassy or Consulate in your country of residence.
You have to apply at the Visa Services of the European country of your main destination (normally it is the country of the longest visit). Under no circumstances a country where you wish to make transit can be considered the country of main destination. If a main destination cannot be determined, you have to apply at the Embassy of the country of first entry.
